Who We Are:

This Notice describes the privacy practices of Mid-Delta Health Systems, Inc. and the privacy practices of:

- all of our doctors, nurses, and other health care professionals authorized to enter information about you into your medical chart.
- all of our departments, including, e.g., our medical records and billing departments.
- all of our employees, staff, volunteers and other personnel who work for us or on our behalf.

Our Pledge:

We understand that health information about you and the health care you receive is personal. We are committed to protecting your personal health information. When you receive treatment and other health care services from us, we create a record of the services that you received. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with legal requirements. This notice applies to all of our records about your care, whether made by our health care professionals or others working in this office, and tells you about the ways in which we may use and disclose your personal health information. This notice also describes your rights with respect to the health information that we keep about you and the obligations that we have when we use and disclose your health information.

We are required by law to:

- make sure that health information that identifies you is kept private in accordance with relevant law.
- give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your personal health information.
- follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect for all of your personal health information.

How We May Use and Disclose Your Health Information:

We may use and disclose your personal health information for these purposes:

For Treatment. We may use health information about you to provide you with health care treatment or services. We may disclose health information about you to the doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students and others who are involved in your care. They may work at Mid-Delta Health Systems, at the hospital if you are hospitalized under our supervision, or at another doctor's office, lab, pharmacy or other health care provider to whom we may refer you for treatment, consultation, x-rays, lab tests, prescriptions or other health care services. They may also include doctors and other health care professionals who work at Mid-Delta Health Center, or elsewhere, whom we consult about your care.

For Payment. We may use and disclose health information about you to bill and collect payment from you, your insurance company, including Medicaid and Medicare, or other third party that may be available to reimburse us for some or all of your health care. We may also disclose health information about you to other health care providers or to your health plan so that they can arrange for payment relating to your care.

For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose health information about you for our day-to-day operations, and may disclose information about you to other health care providers involved in your care or to your health plan for use in their day-to-day operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run the Health Center and to make sure that all of our patients receive quality care, and to assist other providers and health plans in doing so as well. For example, we may use health information to review the services that we provide and to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also combine health information about our patients with health information from other health care providers to decide what additional services the Health Center should offer, what services are not needed, whether new treatments are effective or to compare how we are doing with others and to see where we can make improvements. We may remove information that identifies you from this set of health information so others may use it to study health care delivery without learning who our patients are.

Appointment Reminders. We may use and disclose health information about you to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment at the Health Center

Health-Related Services and Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose health information to tell you about health-related services or recommend treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you. Please let us know if you do not wish us to contact you with this information, or if you wish to have us use a different address when sending this information to you.

Fundraising Activities. We may use health information about you to contact you in an effort to raise money for our not-for-profit operations. If we do so, you will be notified in writing. You will also have the right to opt out of the fundraising as well as opt out of receiving any future correspondence regarding fundraising. Please let us know if you do not want us to contact you for fundraising efforts.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may release health information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your health care or the person who helps pay for your care.

Research. Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose health information about you for research purposes. All research projects, however, are subject to a special approval process. This process evaluates a proposed research project and its use of health information, trying to balance the research needs with a patient's need for privacy. We will always ask for your specific permission if the researcher will have access to your name, address, or other information that reveals who you are or will be involved in your care.

Organ and Tissue Donation. If you are an organ donor, we may disclose health information about you to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

As Required By Law. We will disclose health information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose health information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone able to help prevent the threat.

Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces or separated/ discharged from military services, we may release health information about you as required by military command authorities or the Department of Veterans Affairs as may be applicable. We may also release health information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authorities.

Workers' Compensation. We may release health information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Public Health Activities. We may disclose health information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the following:

- to prevent or control disease, injury or disability.
- to report births and deaths.
- to report child abuse or neglect.
- to report reactions to medications or problems with products.
- to notify people of recalls of products.
- to notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition.
- to notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose health information about you to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs and compliance with civil rights laws.

Lawsuits and Disputes. We may disclose health information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose health information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process that is not accompanied by a court or administrative order, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

Law Enforcement. We may release health information about you if asked to do so by a law enforcement official:

- in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process.
- to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- under certain limited circumstances, about the victim of a crime.
- about a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct.
- about criminal conduct at the Health Center.
- in emergency circumstances to report a crime, the location of the crime or victims, or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.

Coroners, Health Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may release health information about our patients to a coroner or health examiner. We may also release health information to funeral directors as may be necessary for them to carry out their duties.

National Security and Intelligence Activities. We may release health information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities authorized by law.

Protective Services for the President and Others. We may disclose health information about you to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or conduct special investigations.

Inmates. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release health information about you to the corrections institution or law enforcement official. This release would be necessary (1) for the institution to provide you with health care, (2) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others, or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional institution.

Marketing Purposes. If Mid-Delta Health Systems, Inc. chooses to engage in any kind of marketing about a product or service that may encourage recipients to use or purchase said product or service, and Mid-Delta is paid by the third party, you will be notified in writing and will be asked to sign an authorization allowing us to give the third party your information. You will also be able to sign a denial form stating that you do not wish to participate, and you do not want your information to be released to the third party.

Sale of Protected Health Information. If for any reason Mid-Delta Health Systems, Inc. sells any kind of protected health information, we must inform you of this in writing and receive signed authorization from the patient. If we do not receive signed authorization, your protected health information will not be sold. Exceptions to this rule include the following circumstances: public health, research, treatment, corporate transactions, disclosures to business associates, disclosures to patient, disclosures required by law, or other disclosures permitted by this rule as long as payment is related to the cost of making the disclosure.

Any other uses and disclosures not described above will be made only with the authorization of the individual.

Your Rights:

You have certain rights with respect to your personal health information. This section of our notice describes your rights and how to exercise them:

Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and copy the personal health information in your medical and billing records, or in any other group of records that we maintain and use to make health care decisions about you. This right does not include the right to inspect and copy psychotherapy notes, although we may, at your request and on payment of the applicable fee, provide you with a summary of these notes.

To inspect and copy your personal health information, you must submit your request in writing to our privacy contact person identified on the first page of this notice. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the copying and mailing costs, and for any other costs associated with your request.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If your request is denied, you may request that the denial be reviewed. We will designate a licensed health care professional to review our decision to deny your request. The person conducting the review will not be the same person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of this review. Certain denials, such as those relating to psychotherapy notes, however, will not be reviewed.

Right to Amend: If you feel that the health information we maintain about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for any information that we maintain about you. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing, submitted to our privacy contact person identified on the first page of this notice, and must be contained on one piece of paper legibly handwritten or typed. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request for an amendment.

We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- was not created by us, unless the person or organization that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment,

- is not part of the health information kept by or for the Health Center,
- is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy, or
- is accurate and complete.

Any amendment we make to your health information will be disclosed to the health care professionals involved in your care and to others to carry out payment and health care operations, as previously described in this notice.

- Right to Receive an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures of your health information that we have made. Any accounting will not include all disclosures that we make.

To request an accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to our privacy contact person identified on the first page of this notice. Your request must state a time period which may not be more than six (6) years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. The first list you request within a 12 month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred. We will mail you a list of disclosures in paper form within 30 days of your request, or notify you if we are unable to supply the list within that time period and by what date we can supply the list; this date will not exceed 60 days from the date you made the request.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the health information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the health information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as a family member or friend.

We are not required to agree to your request for restrictions if it is not feasible for us to comply with your request or if we believe that it will negatively impact our ability to care for you. If we do agree, however, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide emergency treatment. To request a restriction, you must make your request in writing to our privacy contact person identified on the first page of this notice. In your request, you must tell us what information you want to limit and to whom you want the limits to apply.

As of September 23, 2013, you have the right to request a restriction of any information being submitted to your health plan. You may request that we not file a specific visit with your health plan if: the disclosure is for the purpose of carrying out payment or health care operations and is not otherwise required by law AND the protected health information pertains solely to a health care item or service for which the patient will PAY FOR IN FULL ON DATE OF SERVICE. (This right to restriction is not applicable to Medicaid.) If you pay for this visit with a check and it is sent back to us for nonsufficient funds, we will contact you. You will have a certain amount of time to provide us with the payment, or we will then file your visit with the health plan. You must inform us of your wish before any claims are made. It is best to inform us at time of check in so that we may follow through with your request in a timely manner. If you leave the facility and then decide to make this request, we do not have to allow your request. You will be asked to sign a request for restriction form. This will only be valid for that one visit. Any new visits will require a new request on the date of service.

Right to Receive Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about health matters in a certain way.

To request that we communicate with you in a certain way, you must make your request in writing to our privacy contact person identified on the first page of this notice. We will not ask you the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We will accommodate all reasonable requests.

Right to a Paper Copy of this Notice. You have the right to receive a paper copy of this notice at any time. To receive a copy, please request it from our privacy contact person identified on the first page of this notice.

In Case of Breach. In the event that there is a breach of any unsecured protected health information, all affected individuals will be notified in writing.

Changes to this Notice:

We reserve the right to change this notice and to make the changed notice effective for all of the health information that we maintain about you, whether it is information that we previously received about you or information we may receive about you in the future. We will post a copy of our current notice in our facility. Our notice will indicate the effective date on the first page, in the top right-hand corner. We will also give you a copy of our current notice upon request.

Complaints:

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. You may file a complaint by mailing, faxing or e-mailing us a written description of your complaint or by telling us about your complaint in person or over the telephone:

Other Uses and Disclosures of Your Protected Health Information:

Other uses and disclosures of personal health information not covered by this notice or applicable law will be made only with your written authorization. If you give us your written authorization to use or disclose your personal health information, you may revoke your authorization, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your personal health information for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any uses and disclosures that we have already made with your authorization, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we have provided to you.
